PREFACE

In compiling this book it has been our endeavor to have in it only such recipes as have been tested.

Because of duplication many excellent recipes have had to be omitted.

We wish to thank all those who, by their assistance, have made this book possible.

MRS. M. A. CASEY,
MRS. ALBERT SCUDDER,
MRS. A. U. SOULE,
Committee.

SOUPS

Grandmother's Soup

Two tablespoonfuls of butter, 2 tablespoonfuls of flour, (Sperry Drifted Snow), 1 quart of seasoned stock, 1 egg, $\frac{1}{2}$ cup of bread crumbs. Mix butter and flour, add stock, boil. Beat egg without separating, add it to the bread crumbs; after the soup is off the stove add the egg slowly. Serve immediately.

—Mrs. Mac Bride.

Celery Soup

One head of celery, 1 pint water, 1 pint milk, 1 tablespoon each of chopped onion, butter and flour (Sperry Drifted Snow), $\frac{1}{2}$ teaspoonful each of salt and pepper. Wash celery and cut into small pieces. Put it into 1 pint of boiling salted water and cook until very soft. Mash it in the water in which it has been boiled. Cook the onion with the milk in the double boiler 10 minutes and add it to the celery. Put all through a coarse strainer and boil up once; cook the butter and flour together and stir it into the boiling soup. Add the salt and pepper and boil 5 minutes.

—Mrs. W. H. Paulin.

Tomato Bisque

Stew enough tomatoes to make a pint (when stewed), when soft put through a strainer. While the tomatoes are boiling stir one tablespoon of corn starch into a quart of milk and cook until it is like cream. Add $\frac{1}{2}$ saltspoon of baking soda, 1 level teaspoon of salt, a very little cayenne pepper and $\frac{1}{2}$ saltspoon of white pepper and turn into this mixture the strained tomatoes. Add a heaped tablespoonful of softened, but not hot, butter. Stir thoroughly and serve immediately.

—Mrs. W. H. Paulin.

Stewed Oysters

Bring 1 pint milk to boil, add a small lump of butter, 12 oysters, salt and pepper. Allow the milk to boil up once and serve at once. This serves 2 persons.

—Mrs. A. R. Hofer.

Oysters Fried in Batter

Make a batter of 3 eggs, well beaten, 3 tablespoonfuls milk, 1 tablespoon flour (Sperry Drifted Snow), and liquor of oysters. Put butter into frying pan and when hot drop the oysters, one at a time, into the batter, filling the spoon with batter, drop them into the hot butter and fry until rich brown.

—Mrs. A. A. Hyde.

Lima Bean Soup

Wash 1 pint lima beans, soak over night. In the morning slip the skins off as in blanching almonds; put in a double boiler, cover with boiling water and cook for 2 hours; add salt, pepper and 1 small onion, grated, and just before serving add a heaping teaspoon of beef extract dissolved in 1 quart of boiling water.

—Mrs. Hofer.

Corn Chowder

Cut 10 cents worth of salt pork into cubes and fry out in a saucepan. In this fat fry 2 medium-sized sliced onions until yellow, then add 2 raw potatoes, sliced and cut in dice, and the corn from $\frac{1}{2}$ dozen ears, a pint of boiling water, salt and pepper to taste. Let simmer until the potatoes are tender, then add a pint of scalded milk which has been thickened by the addition of one tablespoon of butter rubbed into two tablespoons of flour (Sperry Drifted Snow). Simmer for 5 minutes and serve.

—Lydia McMillan.

Clam Chowder

Four medium-sized potatoes, 4 medium-sized onions, $\frac{1}{2}$ pound lean salt pork, 1 can Underwood Little Neck Clams. Put vegetables and pork through food chopper separately. Fry out salt pork in frying pan until almost crisp, add vegetables and enough hot water to keep from burning. Cover and cook for $\frac{1}{2}$ hour. Just before vegetables are done add can minced clams. Boil well 15 minutes, add 1 quart milk, boil 5 minutes. This will serve 5 people.

—A. Y. Soule.

Cream of Corn Soup

Grate corn from $\frac{1}{2}$ dozen small ears. Put cobs in kettle and cover with 3 pints boiling water; let boil slowly 30 minutes. Take out cobs, put in grated corn and boil until soft; press through sieve, season and let simmer. Rub 3 tablespoons butter and 2 of flour (Sperry Drifted Snow) together, add to soup and stir. Add 1 pint milk, cook 1 minute and add beaten yolks of 2 eggs. Serve immediately.

—Mrs. Harold Loomis.

Cream of Corn Soup

1 can of corn, 1 cup of water, boil for 20 minutes, add 1 scant quart of milk, season with salt, pepper and butter, thicken with 2 teaspoonsful of flour (Sperry Drifted Snow), bring to the boil, have two hard boiled eggs chopped fine, strain soup, add eggs, serve.

—Mrs. Mac Bride.

Five-Minute Tomato Soup

Four large ripe tomatoes, 1 large tablespoon flour (Sperry Drifted Snow) 4 ounces butter, $\frac{1}{2}$ onion (grated), $\frac{1}{2}$ teaspoon salt, $\frac{1}{4}$ teaspoon soda, 1 pint boiling water, pepper. Slice tomatoes into stewpan, add salt and soda, stew. Put butter and onion in large skillet; when it begins to brown add flour, working it smooth; add water, stirring all the time until it boils; then pour in the tomatoes through a sieve, stirring until evenly mixed. Serve very hot.

—Mrs. George E. Haney.

Cream of Tomato Soup

Take 1 quart of tomatoes, add a small onion sliced fine and 1 bay leaf, let simmer $\frac{1}{2}$ hour, run through sieve; put 1 quart of milk on to heat, add 2 tablespoons butter and a small spoon of flour (Sperry Drifted Snow), rubbed together, add salt and paprika to taste; add a pinch of soda to the tomatoes, then pour them into the boiling milk and serve.

Vegetable Soup

Take a 15 cent soup bone of beef and about the same of mutton, put in large kettle with 5 quarts of cold water, add 2 turnips, 3 onions, 2 potatoes, 2 carrots, 2 large tomatoes, 1-3 bunch of celery, all cut in small pieces, 2 bay leaves, 3 cloves; simmer $\frac{1}{2}$ day, add salt and pepper to taste, add 1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce.

Soup

One pound chopped beef, $\frac{1}{2}$ cup corn meal, 1 onion, 1 bell pepper, 2 tomatoes, 2 quarts water. Mix the meat with corn meal, add chopped vegetables and water and boil 1 hour; season.

—Mrs. Forrest Casey.

MEMORANDA

FISH AND MEATS

Baked Fish

Place fish in a baking pan and sprinkle with lemon juice, salt and pepper. Have in readiness $\frac{1}{4}$ cup each of celery and carrot and 2 tablespoons each of green pepper and parsley, 1 tablespoon of onion, all of which has been chopped very fine and simmered for 10 minutes in $\frac{1}{4}$ cup of olive oil. Spread this over fish, cover and bake from 20 to 30 minutes.

—Maude M. B. Scudder.

Baked Fish With Tomato Sauce

Cook 2 cups tomatoes with 1 cup water and 1 slice onion, 3 cloves and 1 tablespoon sugar. Melt 3 tablespoons butter, add 3 tablespoons flour (Sperry Drifted Snow), and stir it into the tomatoes. Add $\frac{3}{4}$ teaspoon salt and $\frac{1}{8}$ teaspoon cayenne pepper; cook 10 minutes and strain. Clean the fish, put in baking dish, pour around it $\frac{1}{2}$ of the sauce and bake 35 minutes, basting often. Remove to hot platter and pour around it the remaining sauce.

—Mrs. C. E. Casey.

Salmon Croquettes

One pint of white sauce, using 2 tablespoonfuls of butter, 4 tablespoonfuls flour (Sperry Drifted Snow), 2 cups hot milk; cook until thick and smooth, then add 1 can salmon broken in small pieces; season with salt and pepper, 1 teaspoon lemon juice, 1 teaspoon minced parsley. When cold shape into croquettes, roll in cracker crumbs, then in beaten eggs and in crumbs again; let stand a couple of hours. Fry in deep fat, using a wire basket.

—Mrs. Edith Baxter.

Shrimp Wiggle

Two tablespoons melted butter, 2 tablespoons flour (Sperry Drifted Snow), 1 pint hot milk. Boil, then add 2 cans shrimps; boil, then add 1 can peas, season and serve on buttered toast.

—Mrs. C. Boicourt.

Fried Clams

Select large, fresh clams, wash thoroughly and dry; dip in beaten egg, then in cracker crumbs, season with salt and pepper and fry in hot butter until rich brown.—H. H. H.

Salmon Loaf

One can salmon, 2 cups stale bread crumbs, 2 well beaten eggs, butter size of walnut, $\frac{1}{2}$ cup sweet milk, salt and pepper to taste. Place in buttered tins and steam $\frac{1}{2}$ hour, then bake $\frac{1}{2}$ hour. Can be steamed $\frac{3}{4}$ hour and not baked; baking dries it.
—Mrs. Fahs.

Steamed Salmon Loaf With Pimiento Sauce

Remove the contents of a can of salmon and rinse thoroughly with hot water; remove skin and bones, season with 1 tablespoon lemon juice, 1 teaspoon salt, $\frac{1}{8}$ teaspoon paprika; let stand while you cook $\frac{1}{2}$ cup soft bread crumbs and $\frac{1}{2}$ cup milk together, stirring all the time until smooth; add this to the fish and the yolk of 3 eggs beaten till very light; then fold in the beaten whites of 3 eggs, turn into a buttered pan, cover with butter paper and steam until done; unmold, garnish with parsley and pour the sauce around.

Pimiento Sauce

Melt 3 tablespoons butter, add $1\frac{1}{2}$ tablespoons flour (Sperry Drifted Snow), then $1\frac{1}{2}$ cups milk, and cook, stirring constantly. Take from fire, season with salt and 3 pimientos pressed through a sieve.
—E. L. W.

Creamed Tuna

One heaping tablespoon butter, melted, add 1 level tablespoon flour (Sperry Drifted Snow); stir until smooth, then add $1\frac{1}{4}$ cup milk; stir until thick; season to taste with salt and pepper; then add 1 small can tuna minced fine. Serve on toast.
—Mrs. Thos. Brown.

Salmon Chartreuse

One cup rice, 1 can salmon, 2 cups cream sauce, 1 lump butter size of walnut. Boil rice in salted water until soft, strain and add to cream sauce with shredded salmon, oil of salmon and butter. One or 2 beaten eggs added is an improvement. Season to taste with salt and pepper. Bake 20 minutes.
—Mrs. A. Y. Soule.

Baked Ham

One slice ham 1 inch thick, bake 40 minutes in a covered pan. Before baking pour over it the following sauce: One tablespoon butter, 2 tablespoons flour (Sperry Drifted Snow), grating of onion, 6 tablespoons tomato catsup, 1 cup water. Boil on slow fire until smooth.

Beef Loaf

Two pounds round steak, $\frac{3}{4}$ pound of pork steak, 1 small onion, celery, cayenne, salt and pepper to taste; 1 cup bread crumbs, 1 tablespoon of butter, 1 egg, 1 cup of milk. Form into a loaf and bake in hot oven 20 minutes, then pour over it the following sauce: Mix 1 tablespoon of flour (Sperry Drifted Snow) and 1 of butter over the fire until boiling. Boil 1 pint of strained tomato with a pinch of sugar and pour over the flour and butter. Then pour this sauce over the loaf and bake 1 hour.

—Grace H. Paulin.

Tomato Farcies

Carefully peel large, firm tomatoes and scoop out the centers. In the hollow thus left put a layer of minced ham. Set the tomatoes in a bake pan, sprinkle with salt and pepper, put a bit of butter upon the top of each and cook for 10 minutes; then drop upon the minced ham in each tomato a raw egg; dust with salt and pepper and cook until the eggs are "set."

—Mrs. G. W. Russell.

Meat and Spaghetti

One-quarter pound of butter, heated, $2\frac{1}{2}$ pounds of steak or veal, cut in cubes; let brown in heated butter with 3 onions sliced thin; let simmer for a few minutes, then add 1 quart can of tomatoes, 1 teaspoon salt, $\frac{1}{2}$ teaspoon cinnamon, pepper and paprika to taste; also a few stalks of celery, cut fine, a piece of garlic size of navy bean; let simmer from $2\frac{1}{2}$ to 3 hours. Add 1 package of spaghetti cooked in boiling water; also 1 can of mushrooms, and cook 20 minutes.

—Mrs. Wilmer Hogeboom.

Sweetbread Ramequins

Clean and parboil sweetbread, cut in cubes, melt 2 tablespoons butter, add 3 tablespoons flour (Sperry Drifted Snow), gradually pour on 1 cup chicken stock; reheat sweetbreads in sauce and add $\frac{1}{4}$ cup cream and $1\frac{1}{2}$ teaspoonsful beef extract; season with salt, paprika and lemon juice. Fill ramequin dishes, cover with buttered crumbs and bake until crumbs are brown.

—Mrs. Perry.

Chili Con Carne

One pound ground beef, 3 large potatoes and 3 large onions; put through the meat chopper; 1 can kidney beans, 1 can tomatoes, 1 dessertspoon chili powder, 2 tablespoons butter or bacon grease, salt to taste; cover with water and boil about 2 hours; add water if necessary to make about 4 quarts when done. Cook it over an asbestos mat, as it burns easily.

—Mrs. C. E. Casey.

Beef Loaf

Two and three-quarter pounds lean beef, chopped fine, $\frac{1}{4}$ pound salt pork, chopped fine, 8 soda crackers, rolled fine, 1 cup milk, $\frac{1}{4}$ cup butter, 4 eggs, well beaten; salt and pepper to taste. Pack in tin and bake 2 hours in moderate oven.

—Miss Olmstead.

Beef Loaf With Mexican Sauce

Two pounds lean, chopped beef, 1 tablespoon chopped onion, 1 level teaspoon salt, $\frac{1}{4}$ teaspoon black pepper, 1 tablespoon chopped parsley, 1 cup stale bread crumbs. Mix all together and moisten with strained tomatoes; shape in loaf and bake 40 minutes in greased pan, basting often with tomato juice. Serve on hot platter surrounded with

Mexican Sauce

One-quarter cup chopped onion, $\frac{1}{4}$ cup green and red peppers, $\frac{1}{4}$ cup butter. Cook until soft, then add 4 tablespoons flour (Sperry Drifted Snow), $1\frac{1}{2}$ cups boiling water or brown stock, and 1 cup stewed tomatoes. Season with salt. This is enough to serve 4 or 5 people.—Mrs. Thos. Brown.

Fricassee Chicken

Cut up 2 young chickens and boil until tender, adding salt, pepper and butter to taste; fry until brown. In the pan in which you have fried the chicken put 2 tablespoons flour (Sperry Drifted Snow, smooth; add the stock left from boiling the chicken, a little milk and the yolks of 2 well beaten eggs. Let all boil 1 minute. Put chicken on deep platter, pour over gravy and serve.

Swiss Steak

Take a round steak, cut about $2\frac{1}{2}$ inches thick, pound until very tender, dash in cold water, salt and then knead as much flour (Sperry Drifted Snow), as possible into the steak. Brown in hot fat, partially cover with hot water and simmer for 3 hours in covered skillet.

—Mrs. O. V. Pratt.

Mexican Meat Balls

One pound pork or 1 pound beef, chopped fine, 1-3 as much bread crumbs as meat, 1 egg, 1 small onion, chopped fine, 1 teaspoon chili powder, salt and pepper to taste, 2 tablespoons water. Put into a pan and mix thoroughly. Make into balls the size of small orange. Make a sauce as follows: One quart of tomatoes, 1 chopped onion, 1 teaspoon chili powder, salt and pepper. Simmer until onion is done, place meat balls in this sauce and boil gently until done, about an hour. Place meat balls on platter, thicken sauce and pour over meat.

—Mrs. Haney.

Veal Loaf

Take 3½ pounds raw veal, both lean and fat, 1 pound salt pork, chopped fine, 6 small crackers, rolled fine, 2 beaten eggs, butter the size of an egg, salt to taste, 1 teaspoon pepper, ½ grated nutmeg. Mix all thoroughly and work into the form of a loaf; place in a baking pan, put bits of butter and sprinkle cracker crumbs over the top. Bake in moderate oven 2 hours, basting several times with water.

—Miss Cox.

Boiled Ham, Southern Style

Soak ham over night in cold water, wipe well before putting in to boil. Put the ham into enough boiling water to cover the ham, boil for 5 or 10 minutes, turn fire down and let simmer for the rest of the time of cooking, allowing 20 minutes to the pound as a minimum. When done remove the rind, cover the ham with a thick paste of flour (Sperry Drifted Snow), and water, put in a baking pan and cook for ½ hour, then remove the paste, cover the top with thin slices of lemon and whole cloves, baste with sugared water, put back in the oven until nicely browned. Can be served either hot or cold.

—Mrs. S. T. Allen.

Cold Meat Loaf

One hock veal, cook until thoroughly done, about 2 to 3½ hours, season with salt and pepper; take from the broth and let cool; pick all meat from the bone, put through grinder, put back in the broth and add ½ package of gelatine, which has been soaked in 1 cup cold water 10 minutes. Put back on the fire and let boil up once. Put a layer of hard boiled egg and pimiento in the bottom of a pan, then pour in a layer of the meat and keep alternating. Finish with the meat on top. Let harden. Serve sliced. —Mrs. Potoff.

Croquettes

One pint cold meat chopped, 1 scant teaspoon salt, 1 tablespoon chopped parsley, 1 tablespoon grated onion, dash red pepper. Mix thoroughly 1 cup soup stock or broth, heated; 1 teaspoon butter, 2 teaspoons flour (Sperry Drifted Snow); add the meat, mix well and cool; form into croquettes and dip in beaten egg; roll in bread crumbs and fry in deep fat.

—Mrs. Sedwick.

Meat Toast

Take scraps of lean meat, grind it fine, make a rich gravy of butter with what juice of the meat you may have, season with salt and pepper. Toast bread and butter it, cover with the mixture and serve hot. An excellent breakfast dish.

—Mrs. Sylvester.

Vegetarian Roast

One cup walnuts, 1 large onion, chopped, 2 tablespoons olive oil, 1 teaspoon salt, $\frac{1}{2}$ teaspoon sage, $1\frac{1}{2}$ cups toasted bread crumbs, enough hot water to make it hold together, add 1 beaten egg. Bake $\frac{1}{2}$ hour. Serve with thickened tomato juice, seasoned with salt and peanut butter.

—Mrs. Myrtle Hutchison.

Boiled Ham

Pour boiling water over ham and when cool enough wash and scrape or brush to remove all mold and dust. Steam until tender when pierced with a fork. When done place in a pan to skin. Dip hands in cold water, take skin between fingers and skin like an orange. Put in baking pan, lean side down; sift rolled crackers or dried bread crumbs over the top and bake 30 minutes. Serve with mustard or horse radish.

—Mrs. Albert Brown.

Meat Pie

One pound round steak cut in small pieces, slice small onion, fry in 2 spoonsful of suet; don't scorch it; add the meat and 1 tablespoon flour (Sperry Drifted Snow); stir until it is seared over, add enough hot water to come up through it; salt and pepper to taste; let simmer until tender; put in deep baking dish and add about 15 ripe olives; put on a cover of rich biscuit dough and bake.

Veal Loaf

Three pounds of raw veal, chopped very fine, butter size of egg, 3 eggs, 3 tablespoons of cream or milk; if milk use a small piece of butter; mix eggs and cream together. Mix with veal 6 crackers, crushed fine, $\frac{1}{2}$ teaspoon black pepper, 1 tablespoon salt, 1 tablespoon of sage. Mix well together and form in a loaf. Bake 3 hours, basting with butter and water while baking. Serve cut in slices. —Ruth Brown.

Cream Chicken

One chicken of 4 pounds, 4 sweetbreads, and 1 can mushrooms; boil chicken and sweetbreads separately; put chicken and mushrooms and sweetbreads, cut up in small pieces, in a dish, add 4 tablespoons of butter, 5 teaspoons flour (Sperry Drifted Snow), scald 1 quart of cream and put in mixture, season with salt and pepper, cover with bread crumbs and pieces of butter on top. Bake 15 to 20 minutes.

—Mrs. Albert Brown.

Chicken Patties

Make a nice rich puff paste, cut a round from it with a medium large cookie cutter, and with a smaller size cutter cut out the middle of the round, thus leaving a ring. Bake to a light brown in a quick oven, then brush them over with beaten egg, and put in the oven 1 minute to glaze; fill these crusts with minced boiled chicken, well seasoned, and beaten well into a white sauce made of the water in which the chicken was boiled. Serve hot.

—Ruth Brown.

Chinese Noodles

Two eggs, a pinch of salt and as much flour (Sperry Drifted Snow), as eggs will absorb; rub together with the hands, then roll very thin and cut into noodles $\frac{1}{4}$ of an inch wide and 20 to 30 inches long. Boil in rich chicken broth 20 minutes; serve in broth with very small pieces of bacon on top. To be properly appreciated should be eaten with chopsticks.

—Iva M. Miller, Tientsin, China.

VEGETABLES

Rice Croquettes With Jelly

Wash $\frac{1}{2}$ cup rice, add $\frac{1}{2}$ cup boiling water, $\frac{1}{2}$ teaspoon salt, cover and steam until rice has absorbed all the water, then add 1 cup scalded milk and stir lightly with a fork; cover and let steam until rice is soft, then take from the fire and add 1 rounding tablespoon butter and yolks of 2 eggs, spread on a shallow plate to cool; shape in croquettes and roll in cracker crumbs, then dip in egg and again in crumbs and fry in deep fat until brown; arrange in dish with cubes of currant jelly on each, and eat with roast lamb.

—Mrs. Thos. Brown.

Fried Apples

Cut 3 large apples crosswise into a skillet, pour on $\frac{1}{2}$ teacup water, put on stove, cover and cook until tender; add 1 teacup brown sugar and $\frac{1}{2}$ teaspoon butter and fry until brown; stir often to keep from burning.

—Mrs. Myrtle Hutchison.

Boston Baked Beans

One pint of pea beans having been soaked and parboiled until the skins slip, put one small onion in the bean pot and cover with half the beans, add salt, 2 tablespoons molasses and 1 dessertspoon of mustard. Rest of the beans with more salt and $\frac{1}{2}$ pound salt pork (scored) on top and cover with hot water. Bake all day in moderate oven, adding more water if beans get dry.

—Mrs. G. F. Atkinson.

Spanish Beans

Put 1 quart of pink beans to soak over night. In the morning put them on with plenty of water over a slow fire with no salt; cook about 3 hours. Make a sauce of 2 large onions, 2 strong chili peppers and 4 medium size tomatoes, chopped fine; after the beans have cooked 2 hours pour this in and salt to taste and cook slowly 1 hour more.

—Mrs. Arthur B. Shaffner.

Buttered Beets

Boil beets until tender and cut into dices. Dress with 1 heaping tablespoonful flour (Sperry Drifted Snow), mixed with 3 tablespoonsful vinegar, butter size of an egg and water if necessary. Boil together until creamy. Serve as a vegetable.

—Mrs. G. F. Atkinson.

Cabbage Dumplings

Pull a head of cabbage apart, leaf by leaf. Wash well and cook only until slightly tender. Flavor some hamburger steak with a little onion, salt and pepper and form into small balls; place a ball of the meat in the center of 2 or 3 of the cabbage leaves; bring leaves up and fasten with string or toothpicks. Put in a steamer and steam, or drop in boiling water and boil slowly, cooking until the meat is well cooked.

—Eva M. Russell.

Escalloped Cabbage

Put a layer of cold cooked cabbage in a buttered baking dish, then a layer of medium white sauce (grated cheese may be added to white sauce if desired). Cover with buttered crumbs and bake 20 minutes, or until crumbs are brown.

Corn Saute

Six ears corn cut off as for stewing, 1 tablespoon butter or Crisco, 2 tablespoons sweet pepper, cut fine. Season with pepper and salt; simmer over slow fire.

—Nellie M. Schultz.

Potato Roll

Two cups mashed potatoes, $\frac{1}{4}$ pound grated cheese, 1 egg yolk, 2 tablespoons milk, teaspoon onion juice, salt, tablespoon minced parsley, if you like. Mix, form in roll, brush with milk, roll in bread crumbs, bake. Serve with white sauce with $\frac{1}{2}$ cup of peas in it.

White Sauce

Two tablespoons butter, 1 tablespoon flour (Sperry Drifted Snow), 1 cup milk; cook; salt and pepper to taste.

Rice Croquettes

Cook in double boiler $\frac{1}{2}$ cup rice, 2 cups milk (or part water), $\frac{1}{2}$ teaspoon salt. The mixture should be quite soft when rice is done. If dry add water. Mix 2 tablespoons sugar and 2 well beaten eggs, and cook with the rice, stirring constantly for 3 or 4 minutes. Add $\frac{1}{2}$ teaspoon vanilla and spread on platter to cool. Form in 6 balls, roll in egg and crumbs and fry in deep fat.

—Mrs. J. P. Holland.

Corn Oysters

Place a pint of corn (canned or fresh), on the stove, and allow it to simmer for 20 minutes. If too dry add a little water. Then season with 1 teaspoonful of salt, 1 teaspoonful of butter, $\frac{1}{8}$ teaspoonful of pepper, and 2 tablespoonfuls of milk. Allow it to become cool and then stir in two well beaten eggs and about a cupful of cracker crumbs. Put a tablespoonful of bacon grease in the frying pan and when it has become smoking hot drop in the corn batter by spoonfuls. When a delicate brown turn over and brown other side.

—Anna Kennedy.

Baked Corn

One can corn, 1 cup grated cheese, 1 egg, $\frac{1}{4}$ cup milk, 1 bell pepper cut in small pieces; salt and pepper to taste. Bake until nicely browned.

—W. E. L.

Glazed Sweet Potatoes

Six medium-sized potatoes, $\frac{1}{2}$ cup sugar, 4 tablespoonful water, 1 tablespoonful butter. Wash and pare potatoes, cook 10 minutes in boiling salt water; drain, cut in halves lengthwise, and put in buttered pan. Make a syrup by boiling sugar and water 3 minutes; add butter; brush potatoes with syrup and bake 15 minutes, basting twice with remaining syrup.

—Mrs. P. F. Hill.

Currie and Rice

Cut 1 pound mutton in dice; put 1 tablespoon butter in spider and 1 large onion cut up; fry, then put in the meat; simmer 1 hour or more; add a little water if necessary; stir $1\frac{1}{2}$ tablespoon flour (Sperry Drifted Snow), 1 teaspoon salt and 1 tablespoon curry powder with a little water; put it in the meat and let it thicken; cook $\frac{3}{4}$ cup rice and salt it; spread the rice on a platter and pour the meat over it.

—Mrs. M. A. Casey.

Spanish Rice

One and one-half cup cooked rice, $1\frac{1}{2}$ teaspoons salt, 2 tablespoonfuls butter, paprika, $\frac{1}{4}$ onion (sliced thin), 2 or 3 cups stock or water, 1 can tomato pulp, $\frac{1}{2}$ cup grated cheese. Melt butter in sauce pan, add the onion and let cook until the butter is absorbed; then add the boiled rice, tomato pulp, salt, paprika and liquid, if needed. Let cook 5 to 10 minutes, then stir cheese in carefully with fork. Serve very hot, or pour into buttered casserole; cover with buttered crumbs and bake in over.

—Mrs. Warren T. Smith.

Spanish Rice

One cup rice, partly cooked, 4 large tomatoes, 1 onion, 3 green chili peppers, cut up, from which seeds are removed, $\frac{1}{2}$ cup butter or bacon. If bacon is used, onion is fried in it; salt to taste. Cook slowly 4 hours. Excellent put in cooker.

—Mrs. E. J. Ruenitz.

Fried Summer Squash

—Mrs. Hofer.

Baked Bananas

Remove the skins from 6 firm bananas, place in a shallow pan, dredge well with sugar, add 2 tablespoons soft butter and the juice of $\frac{1}{2}$ a lemon; bake about $\frac{1}{2}$ hour, being careful not to burn. Serve hot with meat course.

—Maude M. B. Scudder.

Candied Sweet Potatoes

Peel and cook moderate sized sweet potatoes until tender, then slice lengthwise and put in a skillet containing $\frac{1}{2}$ cup Karo Corn Syrup and butter the size of an egg and fry slowly until browned.

—Mrs. F. O. Hubbell.

Bell Peppers Stuffed With Corn Custard

Cut large peppers in halves crossways, remove seeds and membranes, cook 1 minute in boiling salted water, drain; cook 1 tablespoon butter and 1 teaspoon finely chopped onion until onion is yellow in color, add 1 teaspoon flour (Sperry Drifted Snow), and stir until smooth, add $1\frac{1}{4}$ cups milk and cook, stirring constantly until boiling; take from fire and add 1 can corn, chopped fine, 2 eggs beaten slightly, and salt and pepper to taste. Fill peppers with mixture, set close together in pan and bake in moderate oven until custard is firm.

—E. L.W.

Fried Peppers

Remove seeds, heat in oven very hot, wrap in wet cloth until skin blisters and can be removed; chop peppers and mix with equal parts of cheese; mix with batter made of 1 egg, heaping spoon of flour (Sperry Drifted Snow), 1 spoon of milk. Fry brown.

—J. C.

Stuffed Tomatoes

Scoop out 6 tomatoes, take equal parts of ground walnuts and bread crumbs, salt, onion juice and pepper to taste; tablespoon melted butter. Fill the tomatoes with same and bake.

Creamed Turnips

Cut in dice, soak in cold water, then put them in boiling water, salted; let them stand boiling hot, but don't boil hard until transparent; make a white sauce, put the turnips in; let stand over hot water 20 minutes. To make white sauce, 2 tablespoons butter, 1 tablespoon flour (Sperry Drifted Snow), rubbed together; add a cup of milk and cook; season with salt and pepper.

Egg Plant

Pare egg plant, cut in cubes, stew in salted water until tender; drain off water, let cool. Into this stir 2 well beaten eggs; drop with a spoon into hot fat in a skillet and fry like hot cakes.

—Mrs. A. R. Hofer.

Egg Plant

Parboil egg plant without peeling for 10 to 20 minutes, according to size; cut lengthwise, scoop out seeds and with them mix 1 cup bread crumbs, 2-3 cup chopped walnut meats, salt, pepper, pinch of sage, a very little onion; heap in shells of egg plant, put lump of butter on top and bake for 15 minutes.

—Hazel Hofer.

CHEESE AND EGG DISHES

Rice and Eggs with Cheese Sauce

Butter a heavy baking dish and cover bottom with a $\frac{1}{2}$ inch layer of boiled rice; cover with a layer of hard boiled eggs, sliced; sprinkle with salt and paprika and moisten well with cheese sauce; cover this with another layer of rice twice as thick as the first; add a layer of sliced eggs, salt and paprika; add plenty of sauce and cover with a generous layer of buttered crumbs; bake. To make the sauce melt 2 tablespoons butter $1\frac{1}{2}$ tablespoons flour (Sperry Drifted Snow), $1\frac{1}{2}$ cups milk; when it boils add $\frac{1}{2}$ cup mild cheese, grated, and a rather high seasoning of salt and pepper.

—Eleanor Wertz.

Rice and Cheese

Butter baking dish and put layer of steamed rice; dot with butter and sprinkle with thin shavings of cheese; pepper and salt and repeat until desired amount is used. Pour milk to $\frac{1}{2}$ depth of bake dish and cover with buttered cracker crumbs and bake until cheese melts. —Mrs. P. F. Hill.

Corn Cheese

One cup yellow corn meal to full quart boiling water, stirring meal gradually into water; add 1 large onion, cut fine, and cook for an hour or more; cut $\frac{1}{2}$ pound cheese (eastern preferred), fine, and add a few minutes before taking up, stirring in well; salt to taste. Chopped olives are also an addition. Serve hot or cold. If the mush is made a little thinner it is fine served on toast like rarebit.

—A. Y. Soule.

Plain Omelette

One-half dozen eggs, beaten separately; beat whites quite stiff; mix with 1 tablespoonful milk for each egg; salt and pepper; pour into a hot buttered skillet and bake in oven until set and brown; fold over and serve immediately.

—Mrs. Tait.

Eggs a la Martin

Six eggs, $\frac{1}{2}$ pint white sauce; put $\frac{1}{2}$ the sauce in baking dish; break the eggs in; put in balance of sauce; cover with grated cheese; put in oven until cheese is melted.

An Omelette that Will Not Fail

Cook an even teaspoonful of corn starch in a teaspoonful of butter until smooth, adding salt, pepper and a cup of milk; when it is thick remove from fire; beat 2 eggs, add to the corn starch and pour into a well buttered omelette or frying pan. Cook in the usual way. —Lulu Dalmazzo.

Cheese Pudding

Cut bread $\frac{1}{2}$ inch thick and cheese $\frac{1}{2}$ inch thick; make into square sandwiches; line a pudding dish with same; beat 3 eggs, add 2 cups milk, salt to taste; pour over and bake 20 minutes. —Mrs. Martin.

Baked Eggs with Pimiento Potatoes

Two cups hot riced potatoes, 3 tablespoonfuls butter, $\frac{1}{2}$ cup rich milk, 1 teaspoon salt, 2 sifted canned pimientos, 6 eggs; beat together the potatoes, milk, butter, salt and pimientos until blended; pile on a buttered, fireproof dish; make 6 indentations and into each break one egg. Dust with salt and pepper and dot with batter; bake until the eggs are set.

Woodchuck

One can tomatoes, 1 pound American cheese, 2 eggs, 2 tablespoons butter, salt, pepper, paprika; heat tomatoes and butter and season to taste with salt, pepper and paprika; then add cheese, cut into small pieces, and stir until thoroughly melted; when smooth stir in the well beaten eggs and remove from fire at once. Serve on crackers or toast. —Mrs. Will Marks.

Cheese Fondue

One cup scalded milk, 1 cup soft stale bread crumbs, $\frac{1}{4}$ pound mild cheese, cut in small pieces, 1 tablespoon butter, $\frac{1}{2}$ teaspoon salt, 3 egg yolks and whites, beaten stiff; mix first 5 ingredients, add yolks, beaten until lemon color; cut and fold in whites of eggs; pour into buttered bake dishes and bake for 20 minutes in slow oven. —Mrs. P. F. Hill.

Spaghetti With Cheese

To $\frac{1}{2}$ pound of spaghetti add salt to season, 1 large tomato, 1 onion and green pepper, cut fine; boil about 40 minutes and add $\frac{1}{2}$ pound grated cheese; cook until cheese is thoroughly dissolved. —Mrs. O. V. Pratt.

Cheese Souffle

Two tablespoons butter, 3 tablespoons flour (Sperry Drifted Snow), $\frac{1}{2}$ cup scalded milk, $\frac{1}{2}$ teaspoon salt, few grains of red pepper, $\frac{1}{4}$ cup grated cheese, 3 egg yolks and whites; melt butter, add flour; when well mixed add gradually scalded milk, pepper and cheese. Remove from stove and add yolks of eggs. Cool mixture and cut and fold in beaten whites; pour into buttered bake dishes and bake in slow oven 20 minutes. Serve immediately. —Mrs. P. F. Hill.

Frivol

One and one-half cups milk, 1 heaping teaspoon butter, $\frac{1}{4}$ pound grated cheese; stir until cheese melts; add tablespoon of flour (Sperry Drifted Snow), mixed with milk until smooth; beat an egg and whip into mixture. Serve on toasted bread or chackers. Put dash of paprika on each serving. —Mrs. A. R. Hofer.

Spanish Spaghetti

One pound spaghetti, 1 tablespoon garlic, chopped fine, $\frac{1}{4}$ pound Oregon cream cheese, $\frac{1}{2}$ teacup bacon fryings, 1 tablespoon Eagle Brand Spanish pepper, 1 pint tomatoes (pulp); put spaghetti on and cook for 1 hour with garlic, and salt to taste (water enough to cover spaghetti good); then strain and bake with tomatoes, bacon fat and pepper, 1 hour, very slowly; then add grated cheese and put back in oven to brown; stir some of cheese in and some on top. The slower you cook this the better it is. —Mrs. Thos. Brown.

Welsh Rarebit

In a sauce pan melt 1 heaping teaspoon butter, add 1 teacup cheese, cut fine, and 2 or 3 tablespoons cream or milk; stir this constantly until melted, then mix 1 beaten egg, pepper and salt, and stir into pan; spread on slices of buttered toast and serve at once. —Mrs. T. Biddel.

Cheese Balls

Take fresh cream cheese and crush with fork until smooth; add enough olive oil to make soft enough to form into balls, and paprika to taste. Roll in chopped walnuts. These are good served either with salad or placed between small crackers, which may be pressed together to make a sandwich. —Mrs. A. R. Hofer.

MEMORANDA

SANDWICHES

Fruit Sandwiches

One small head of lettuce, $\frac{1}{2}$ cup dates, $\frac{1}{2}$ cup walnuts; chop all very fine and add a little salad dressing.

—Mrs. J. H. Paulin.

Green Pepper Sandwich

Equal parts of green peppers and cheese, chopped fine, with a little salt. Spread on thin slices bread, then toast rich brown. Serve hot. Or use mixture on brown bread for serving cold.

—Mrs. Lockwood.

Celery Sandwich

Chop together 1 cup celery, 6 stoned olives and 1 tablespoon English walnuts; moisten to a paste with mayonnaise.

—Mrs. Lockwood.

Ribbon Sandwiches

Cut 4 slices of bread $\frac{1}{2}$ inch thick and butter them liberally with softened butter. Put salad dressing and lettuce leaf between the first. I mix canned pimiento and salad dressing for the next layer and cream cheese and salad dressing for the next. You then have a square of the 4 slices, all joined together; now slice it down in $\frac{1}{2}$ inch or thicker slices and you have a plate full of very attractive and appetizing sandwiches.

—Mrs. W. H. Paulin.

Sardine and Egg Sandwiches

Remove skin and bones from sardines and mash to a paste. Add an equal quantity of yolks or hard boiled eggs, rubbed through a strainer. Season with salt, cayenne pepper and a few drops of lemon juice; moisten with olive oil or melted butter.

—Miss Geller.

Tuna Sandwiches

One large can tuna, 1 small onion, chopped fine, 1 can pimientoes, chopped fine, salt and pepper to taste; mix with mayonnaise dressing and spread between thin slices of buttered bread with a leaf of lettuce. —Mrs. Ray Geller.

Cheese and Olive Sandwiches

Spread bread with cream cheese and then a layer of chopped olives, mixed with mayonnaise dressing.
—Miss Geller.

Date Sandwiches

Wash, dry and stone dates; cut in halves and spread on buttered bread, skin side down; sprinkle with chopped nuts or grated cheese and press into dates with a knife.
—Miss Geller.

Egg and Olive Sandwiches

Three hard boiled eggs, chopped fine, 1 cup ripe olives, chopped fine; add salt and pepper and a dash of cayenne and paprika; mix with mayonnaise and spread on bread with leaves of lettuce.
—Mrs. Ray Geller.

Egg Sandwich

Two eggs, boiled hard, 4 rolled crackers, 1 teaspoon Heinz Mustard, 1 teaspoon butter, 1 tablespoonful of vinegar; salt and pepper to taste; mix all together; add a little more vinegar if it should be too dry. —Nellie K. Smith.

Olive Sandwiches

Chop fine one large bottle of stuffed olives and mix with it two packages of neufchatel cheese; add highly seasoned mayonnaise, enough to moisten and season well; spread between buttered sandwich bread. Cut in long, narrow strips.

Pimiento and Cheese Sandwiches

One-half can pimientoes, $\frac{1}{2}$ pound cheese, $\frac{1}{4}$ cup salad dressing; salt to taste; chop peppers and cheese separately, then mix and add dressing; spread thinly cut bread with the butter and the mixture. —Mrs. Harold Loomis.

Peanut Sandwiches

Put the desired amount of fresh roasted peanuts through a meat chopper, moisten well with mayonnaise and spread between buttered slices of Boston brown bread.

Sardine Sandwiches

Remove bones from sardines and mash to a paste; add to an equal quantity of yolks of hard boiled eggs and a few chopped ripe olives. Season with salt and paprika and lemon juice and moisten with mayonnaise; spread mixture between thin slices of buttered bread. —Mrs. Will Marks.

Sandwiches

Five cent can of potted ham, chopped celery, cucumber or radish; salt and vinegar to taste; mix with boiled dressing. Serve on lettuce. —Mrs. F. W. Fahs.

Cheese and Nut Sandwiches

Chop fine either pecan, hickory or English walnuts; mix with an equal bulk of neufchatel cheese; add a dash of paprika. —Mrs. Tait.

Put English walnuts through a meat chopper; drain and chop an equal bulk of olive-pimientos, using a chopping knife and bowl; mix thoroughly with mayonnaise and spread between either white or cracked wheat bread.—Mrs. Tait.

Celery Sandwiches

Chop fine 1 cup celery, $\frac{1}{2}$ cup stoned olives, some English walnuts; moisten with mayonnaise dressing. —Mrs. Schuster.

Nut and Cheese Sandwiches

Butter thin slices of bread, spread with cream cheese, well mixed with finely chopped walnut meats; lay on this a tender lettuce leaf.

Two hard boiled eggs; while hot mash with a fork, add 1 tablespoon of melted butter while eggs are hot; 1 mustard spoon of mixed mustard, less if dry; a dash of cayenne pepper, $\frac{1}{2}$ cup of grated cheese; mix all to a paste; makes enough for 8 persons. —Miss Olmstead.

Sandwich Filling

One can pimiento, 3 dill pickles, 10 cents worth of pecan meats; chop each thing separate; mix with cream salad dressing, and spread between slices of buttered bread. —Mrs. Belle Neely.

Nine olives, 1 small onion, 1 green pepper, chow-chow pickles, 1 cupful grated cheese; chop the above very fine and moisten with the mustard dressing from pickles. —Mrs. J. W. Sedwick.

CANDY

Raisin Fudge

Melt 2 tablespoons butter, add 2 cups sugar, 2-3 cup milk; heat to boiling point, add 2 squares chocolate; boil 13 minutes; remove from fire, add 1 teaspoon vanilla; stir until creamy. Before it becomes creamy stir in 2-3 cup raisins and $\frac{1}{2}$ cup nuts.

—Mrs. T. H. Powell.

Prize Patience Candy

One cup granulated sugar (carameled); add 1 cup hot milk and 2 cups sugar; boil briskly when it forms a soft ball as tested in a cup of cold water remove from the fire; add a piece of butter, walnut size, and 1 teaspoon vanilla; beat until creamy; add chopped nuts; pour on buttered platter, cut in squares. Note—If this is cooked in iron frying pan it will not burn, and need not be stirred until removed from the fire.

—Mrs. F. J. Perry.

Divinity Fudge

Two and one-half cups of sugar, $\frac{1}{2}$ cup of Karo, $\frac{1}{2}$ cup of boiling water; stir well before putting on the fire; boil very slowly until it will form a soft ball when dropped in cold water, then pour half the syrup over the beaten whites of 2 eggs; return the remainder of the syrup to the fire and boil until it will make a hair at least 5 inches long and then pour into the other syrup. Do not stop beating the whites after pouring the syrup on them until the mixture becomes creamy. Add 1 cup of nuts or raisins.

—Mrs. Geo. E. Haney.

Crystallized Orange Peel

Take the rind of 4 oranges, remove any portion of the tough fiber separating the sections, but leave the white lining of the yellow rind. With scissors cut the peel in strips about $\frac{1}{4}$ inch wide, and not over $1\frac{1}{2}$ inches long. Cover with plenty of water and boil slowly for $\frac{1}{2}$ hour; drain, cover with fresh water and boil slowly for another $\frac{1}{2}$ hour; then pour off all the water, add a large cup of granulated sugar, $\frac{1}{2}$ cup of cold water, and boil until the syrup has been absorbed. Scatter on brown paper to cool and dry a little, then roll in fine granulated sugar. When thoroughly cold it will separate nicely by rolling well in the sugar.

—Lulu Dalmazzo.

Molasses Candy

Cook 2 cupfuls of molasses in a buttered iron kettle until it forms in a hard ball in cold water. This may be pulled just before it hardens. A teaspoon of vinegar also may be added.

—Mrs. P. F. Hill.

Nut Candy

One cup Karo syrup, 2 cups brown sugar, butter size of an egg; cook slowly until it forms a soft ball in water, then flavor and beat until creamy; then add 1 cup chopped nuts and pour in buttered pan.

—Mrs. F. O. Hubbell.

Chocolate Fondant

Two and one-quarter pounds sugar, $1\frac{1}{2}$ cups cold water, $\frac{1}{4}$ cup grated chocolate, $\frac{1}{4}$ teaspoon cream of tartar; put water and chocolate in pan and heat to boiling point, then add sugar and cream of tartar; cook to soft ball stage and stir until it thickens. Take out of pan and knead on mixing board.

—Mrs. P. F. Hill.

Chocolate Fudge

Two cups of powdered sugar, $\frac{3}{4}$ cup of cream, $\frac{3}{4}$ cup of ground chocolate; mix thoroughly; stir constantly while boiling; test by dropping a little in cold water; it should form a ball which can be handled in the fingers without sticking; add a lump of butter size of a walnut, and 1 teaspoon of vanilla just before taking from the fire; beat until soft and creamy, and then add 1 cup of chopped nuts. Pour on buttered platter.

—Mrs. George E. Haney.

Butter Taffy

Two cups brown sugar, 6 tablespoons water, 2 tablespoons butter, $\frac{3}{4}$ cup chopped nuts; cook sugar and water together, stirring until sugar is dissolved; let this syrup come to the boiling point, then add butter and boil to a soft ball state (about 10 minutes); add nuts and stir until it thickens and pour quickly into buttered pans.

—Mrs. P. F. Hill.

Penoche

Three cups white sugar, $1\frac{1}{2}$ cups milk, 1 cup walnuts, chopped, $\frac{1}{2}$ cup butter, 1 teaspoon salt, 10 drops vanilla; brown 1 cup of sugar until no lumps remain; add milk after being boiled and 2 cups sugar. When this boils add butter and salt; stir constantly and cook until it hardens in cold water; then take from fire and add nuts and vanilla. Beat until it begins to harden, then pour in buttered pan to cool.

—Mrs. A. M. Perkins.

Turkish Delight

Two and one-half cups granulated sugar, $\frac{1}{2}$ cup cold water; bring to a boil; soak 1 box Knox gelatine in $\frac{1}{2}$ cup cold water, add this to boiling mixture of sugar and water and boil 15 minutes; grate rind of 1 lemon and 1 orange with juice; put this into the mixture of gelatine, sugar and water and boil again for 5 minutes longer; take off stove and stir into a cold wet pan and set away to cool over night; cut in squares and roll in powdered sugar. —H. E. Howe.

Salt Water Taffy

Two pounds cane sugar, $\frac{1}{2}$ pound butter, $\frac{1}{2}$ even tablespoon salt, 2 pounds white corn syrup, 1 ounce glycerine, 2 teaspoons vanilla; put enough water in ingredients to keep it from burning; cook until breaks crisply in cold water. Pull. —Mrs. F. W. Fahs.

Fruit Cheese

One pound dried figs, 1 pound dates, 1 pound seeded raisins, 1 pound walnut meats; put through food chopper and mix thoroughly; put in granite lined pan with waxed paper, using weight to press; slice thin to serve. —Mrs. Emma P. Benton.

Choice Caramels

Granulated sugar, 2 cups; cream, 1 cup; Karo Syrup, $1\frac{3}{4}$ cups; butter, 1 cup; cream, 1 cup; vanilla, 1 teaspoon; nut meats, 1 cup; cook the first 4 ingredients to boiling vigorously; gradually stir in 2 cups cream, but do not let boiling stop. Boil to the crack stage and pour into buttered pans. —Mrs. Warren T. Smith.

Stuffed Dates

Stone nice, firm dates; stuff them with neufchatel cheese.

Sandwiches

Pecan nuts and cream cheese; mix thoroughly and spread between bread slightly buttered. —Mrs. Wilmer E. Hogboom.

Use green coloring to make desired color.

—Mrs. F. W. Fahs.

MEMORANDA

MISCELLANEOUS

Fruit Cocktail

Dice pineapple, orange, grapefruit and bananas; fill cocktail glasses, sweeten to taste, pour over this enough grape juice to flavor. Peel and seed enough grapes to allow three to each glass. Place grapes on top. Chill and serve.

—Mrs. Perry.

Coffee for 40 People

1 lb. coffee, 2 eggs, 10 qts. of water; stir eggs into coffee, add cold water until thoroughly moistened, cover with boiling water, boil 5 to 10 minutes until clear; settle with cold water and let stand over a low flame. — Mrs. S. T. Allen.

Chocolate Sauce for Ice Cream

$\frac{1}{2}$ cup sugar, $\frac{1}{2}$ cup water, 4 ozs. Baker's chocolate, $\frac{1}{2}$ cup cream or milk, $\frac{1}{2}$ teaspoonful vanilla.

Boil sugar and water 5 minutes. Melt chocolate over hot water, then add the syrup to the chocolate, add vanilla and let stand in double boiler until ready to serve, then stir in milk or cream.

—H. E. Howe.

Strawberry Cocktail

Slice large strawberries and cover them with orange juice. Serve in ice-cream glasses, or in orange cups, with powdered sugar and shaved ice on top. —Mrs. Sylvester.

Lemon Ice

1 quart milk, 1 pint sugar, juice of 3 lemons. When lemon juice is put in milk it may curdle, but it will all smooth out in the freezing.

—Mrs. Samuel P. Morse, 5337 Lemon Grove.

Pineapple Sherbet

1 can grated pineapple, 1 quart sugar cooked to a syrup; pour over the pineapple. Make a strong lemonade, enough to make 3 quarts altogether; whites of 4 eggs beaten stiff and put in when the sherbet begins to freeze.

—Mrs. Herman.

Strawberry Ice Cream

Sprinkle 2 cups of sugar over 2 quarts of strawberries. Mash and let stand until sugar is dissolved. Turn berries into large square of cheesecloth and squeeze out all the juice and pulp possible. Empty remaining pulp and seeds into a pan. Mix well with about one pint of milk and squeeze again until perfectly dry. Scald and cool from 1 to 2 pints of cream, as you happen to have, and add to the prepared juice. Add sugar to make very sweet. Freeze in the usual way.

—Mrs. J. L. Hisey.

Croutons

Cut stale bread into $\frac{1}{2}$ -inch slices, remove crusts and cut bread into $\frac{1}{2}$ -inch cubes. Brown in a hot oven and serve with soup. Also put thin layers of cheese on cubes before baking them.

—Miss Goldie Perkins.
